

EASY ESCAPE
FOR ROBBERSCastleton People Didn't Think
Explosion Meant Anything

THEIR POSTOFFICE LOOTED

Yegmen Got Away This Morning with $200 in Money and Quantity of Stamps—Their Methods Familiar.

Castleton, July 6.—The Castleton post office, located at the corner of Main and Elm streets, was robbed early this morning of $200 in money and a quantity of stamps, the exact amount not being known at present. The robbery was probably done by the same gang of yegmen which has been working in this vicinity for several weeks, as the methods were similar.

In the first place, the burglars went to the blacksmith shop of George Costa, getting in by breaking a window. There they stole a heavy sledge-hammer and a chisel. With these they forced their way into the post office and dynamited the safe. It is probable that the robbery took place between 1:30 and 2 o'clock, because the residents in that vicinity heard an explosion at about that time, although apparently no effort was made to locate the cause of the explosion.

The first information that yegmen had been about was received when people passing by the post office noticed that everything was not right, and they notified Postmaster R. C. Ransom. That was at 5:30 o'clock this morning. Postmaster Ransom investigated and found that the place had been looted. Not much damage was done beyond the smashing of the safe. The post office has been located in its present quarters only a short time.

MORE MILLS CLOSED.

Thousands of Textile Workers in Rhode Island Idle.

Providence, R. I., July 6.—Many textile mills in Rhode Island, which have not announced a curtailment of production, have been closed for from one week to a fortnight. The American Yarn company, the Slater Manufacturing company, United States Textile company and Royal Weaving company's mills in Pawtucket, and several falls are among those shut down. Yarns are about 6,000 persons.

The Corbett worsted mills of Maple-ville announced a two weeks' shutdown. The Ponasset worsted mills, Victoria worsted and British Hosiery mills in Thornton are idle for a week.

The mills mentioned were not parties to the curtailment agreement among cotton manufacturers recently arranged in Boston.

AEROPLANE NEARLY WRECKED.

Glen H. Curtis Had a Narrow Escape
Last Evening.

Atlantic City, N. J., July 6.—Glen H. Curtis made an eight-minute flight along the entire front of the city about a mile off shore and 1,500 feet above the ocean last evening.

The flight was the second one attempted. In the first an air eddy caught the plane and dropped it to within ten feet of the breakers, but Curtis made a quick turn and drove his machine on the beach with such force that a wood standard alongside his seat was snapped. The drop in the air and the fact that he struck the beach unscathed, and might have thrown him out, but for the new braces built across his shoulders and lashed to the machine yesterday.

REPORTER'S "HONORABLE WOUND"

Whipped Foreigner for Wife Beating and Received Teddy's Commendation.

Oyster Bay, July 6.—To beat up a wife beater, is an honorable act, according to ex-President Roosevelt. A newspaper man who went out to Sagamore hill to-day to interview Teddy was handed on his hands. The editor asked what was the matter and was told that the reporter had sprained his hand whipping a foreigner who had struck his wife at Oyster Bay depot. "Fine, just fine," shouted Teddy. "That's an honorable wound. I'm proud of you. American men who will not permit wife beating." Now other reporters are looking for wife beaters and carrying bandages in their pockets.

SHOCK CAUSES FATAL FALL.

Electrician Drops from Top of Pole and Is Killed.

Madison, Me., July 6.—Leslie Lombard, an electrician connected with the municipal light plant, was knocked from the top of a pole where he was working by the force of a shock last evening and, landing on his head, was instantly killed. He was 38 years of age and is survived by a wife and one child.

JUSTICE MOOD SPEAKS.

Says When He Gets Ready to Retire
He Will Announce It.

Glocester, Mass., July 6.—Justice Moody, when asked if he intended to avail himself of the Congress act, said, "I have not said I would retire. When I do decide to retire, I myself will give out the news." Justice Moody is at Magnolia home, near here, and is improving.

JOHN D. RETURNS.

No Crowd Greeted Rockefeller After Seven Months' Absence.

Cleveland, July 6.—John D. Rockefeller, after seven months' absence, returned to-day to Forest hill for the summer. No crowd greeted him and the old king was pleased.

Selden Richards of Noyan Junction, Que., was in the city to-day.

TRYING TO PREVENT
FIGHT PICTURESExhibition of Johnson-Jeffries Mill Has Been Prohibited in the District of Columbia and Other Places
Are Joining Movement.

Washington, D. C., July 6.—The commissioners of the District of Columbia have issued orders prohibiting the exhibition of Johnson-Jeffries fight pictures, fearing a repetition of the riots. Messages from William Shaw of Boston, secretary of the United Society of Christian Endeavor, who is wiring all governors and mayors to stop the exhibition of the pictures state that a movement bids fair to kill the chances of any peace of the fight. St. Louis, Boston, Atlanta, Cincinnati and many southern cities have refused to allow it. Mayor Gaynor of New York and the mayors of Pittsburgh and Philadelphia decline to interfere. No New England towns outside of Boston have yet taken a stand against the pictures.

THE MOVEMENT STARTED.

4,000,000 People Are to Try to Prevent Fight Pictures.

Boston, July 6.—William Shaw, general secretary of the United Society of Christian Endeavor, an organization containing more than 11,000 societies and more than 4,000,000 members throughout the world, yesterday started a movement to prevent the exhibition of moving pictures of the Jeffries-Johnson fight.

He sent out telegrams last night to the governor of every state in the union, starting off with Gov. Hughes of New York, the message read as follows:

"Race riots and murder in many places followed announcement Johnson's victory in prize fight. These results will be multiplied many fold by moving picture exhibitions. Will you join other governors in recommending prohibition of these demoralizing shows? Save our young people. Wire answer."

He followed this with a telegram of substantially the same tenor to Mayor Gaynor of New York City, appealing to him to "set the standard for other cities by prohibiting the moving picture shows in New York City."

Mr. Shaw announced that he would personally present the matter to Mayor Fitzgerald of Boston. Then he telegraphed to Col. Roosevelt, asking him to "join in the appeal to the authorities, cities and towns to prohibit pictures as the law provides."

DRAPER WOULDN'T TALK

About Suppression of Fight Pictures in Massachusetts.

Boston, July 6.—Governor Draper today refused to discuss the fight picture situation, and declined to say whether he would attempt to prevent their exhibition in this state. Holyoke, Springfield and Taunton are likely to prohibit the exhibition of them.

LONDON'S OPINION OF JEFFRIES-JOHNSON FIGHTThe Globe, Usually Anti-American, Speaks in No Uncertain Terms of the Situation—Sympathy With Anti-Blacks.

London, July 6.—While deploring the American race riots following the fight, London papers unexpectedly offered excuses for the disorders. The usually anti-American Globe, referring to the attempt to lynch a negro in New York, said: "Really our sympathy runs more to the men with the rope than to the blatant blacks. It is against human nature to expect you while men to accept a negro's insolent assertions, that Johnson's victory established the superiority of the blacks, without instant protest. The race contact was one of the most injudicious ever permitted and its racial effects will continue for years. The Americans are trustees of the predominance of the whites over the blacks, and we believe they are true to their trust." Other papers follow in nearly the same vein.

ALMOST A RIOT

When Johnson's Train Stopped at Ogden, Utah.

Ogden, Utah, July 6.—Jack Johnson was greeted by thousands of persons last night when his train pulled into Ogden. Johnson appeared on the platform of his car in response to cheering and, of his car in response to cheering said:

"Well, people, I turned the trick and I'm going back to Chicago to my old mammy. I went out there determined to do the trick, and I had no trouble doing it."

After shaking hands with a few friends, Johnson seated himself next to an open window beside his wife.

Three young couples walked to the open car window and, applying a vile epithet to Johnson in the presence of his wife, dared him to come to the platform. Johnson started to his feet but one of his companions drew him down again. The rowdies rushed to the rear platform where one of them was met with a kick from one of Johnson's trainers and a mouthful of tobacco juice in the eyes.

Officers then forced back the crowd. The doors of the car were locked and the conductor waved to the engineer to pull out. Several threats of shooting were made by the rough crowd but no weapon was displayed.

ATTENDANCE WAS 18,000.

Total Receipts Were $270,775—Promoters
Cleared $120,000.

Reno, Nev., July 6.—Tex Rickard last night gave out official statement of receipts and attendance at the fight. It shows the total gate receipts totaled $270,775. Those that paid admission numbered 18,000.

There were 700 complimentary tickets given to the press and others and he estimated the number of persons that slipped in at 1,500. All told the attendance is given as 18,000.

The purse with the bonuses amounted to $121,000 and Rickard figured that his expenses at San Francisco cost him about $30,000. Thus he and his partner, Gleason, will have a profit of about $120,000.

JURY BACKS
UP FLETCHERIn Stubborn Contest With Woodbury Granite Co.

GIVES $4,152.50 VERDICT

Also Special Verdict That His Quarry
Boundary Claims as Presented in Court Were Correct—County
Court Winds Up Term.

After a stubborn legal fight of two weeks in Washington county court, E. R. Fletcher, a Woodbury granite quarry owner, won his case from the Woodbury Granite company to-day, when the jury brought in a sealed verdict for the plaintiff to recover $4,152.50 and a special verdict that the north and east boundaries of the land in dispute were according to the claim of the plaintiff as presented in what was known as schedule A. Mr. Fletcher, although the winner of the case, did not get as much damage as he sued for, which was $25,000. The Woodbury Granite company was willing to concede the ownership of one-third of the acre strip to the plaintiff. Most of the acre was covered with granite chips from the quarries.

The case was completed yesterday afternoon. John W. Richmond of Newport and Alex. Dunnett of St. Johnsbury appearing for the plaintiff Fletcher and W. A. Dutton of Hardwick, W. B. C. Stickney of Bethel and John H. Suter of Montpelier for the defendant company. Judge Butler gave the case into the jury's hands shortly before six o'clock. The jury retiring and reaching a decision at ten o'clock last night, which was sealed and announced at the reopening of court this morning.

Following the presentation of this verdict, the jurors were paid off for the special session of two weeks and were then discharged. A Barre quarry accident case, that of Arno Genders against the George Stratton Quarry company, was set for trial next, but on agreement of the counsel it was continued to the next term of court, it being the first to come up at that time. The court then took up some minor cases, which were waiting for consideration, and it is expected that a final adjournment of the term will be taken late to-day.

BODY IDENTIFIED

As That of Charles H. Davenport, Who Disappeared February 10.

Springfield, Mass., July 6.—Dr. Charles F. Lynch of this city returned to Springfield last night from New York, where he identified the body of a man found floating in the East river, as that of Charles H. Davenport, a traveling salesman, who mysteriously disappeared from the Murray Hill hotel in that city, Feb. 10.

Dr. Lynch had no difficulty in recognizing the body as that of the paper salesman. Coroner Feinberg, he says, is of the opinion that Davenport fell off the dock and became pinned under water by the piles in the river.

The body was picked up near the U. S. steamship Yankton, and a reward of $500 offered by Davenport's family for his discovery, dead or alive, will be paid to Robert C. Nelson, a petty officer of the Yankton.

Dr. Lynch, the family physician, said there was no reason for the man to commit suicide so far as he knew.

In a pocket were two empty purses, a gold chain, diamond locket, an envelope containing the home address of Mr. Davenport, and a key to room 213, Murray Hill hotel.

The body arrived in Springfield last night and private funeral services were held at 34 Westminster street this afternoon.

EYES BURNED OUT, DIES.

Girl's Father and Sisters Also Suffer in Portland (Me.) Fire.

Portland, Me., July 6.—Dorothy Doughty, aged 6, is dead, her sister, Etta, aged 10, is so seriously injured that she cannot recover; two other sisters are terribly burned but not fatally, and their father, Augustus Doughty, is in the hospital in a critical condition, as the result of a fire at their home at Chebeague island yesterday.

The father's injuries were caused by heroic efforts to save his children, after he had been awakened early in the morning to find his house in flames. Little Dorothy was the last to be taken from the building, and when brought out by her father, her eyes had been burned out, and she died yesterday afternoon.

Etta's clothes were on fire when her father found her and she was terribly burned.

There were eight other people in the dwelling and all had narrow escapes. The fire is believed to have been caused by the explosion of a lamp. The loss is not over $1500.

WANT TRUSTEES REMOVED

Because of Persistent Stories About Murder in Lyman School.

Boston, July 6.—Stirred by stories that the 14-year-old John Newman was murdered at the Lyman school for boys at Westboro and that the body was hung up to make death seem like suicide, Mrs. Anna Steinhauser, of the Parent Protective association, has petitioned for the removal of the board of trustees of the school at a legislative hearing. Mrs. Frank Page, for the Equal Suffrage league, petitioned for the abolition of corporal punishment at the school.

DECLINES APPOINTMENT.

Rev. Ralph F. Lowe Pleases His St.
Albans Parishioners.

St. Albans, July 6.—Rev. Ralph F. Lowe, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, who was recently appointed by Bishop McIntire as superintendent of the St. Albans district, to succeed the late Rev. George W. Hunt, has declined the appointment, much to the gratification of his parishioners.

DRUGGISTS ON WATER.

Their State Association Meeting at Lake
Bromoseen To-day.

Rutland, July 6.—The second day of the Vermont Pharmaceutical association's annual meeting opened at the Prospect house, Lake Bromoseen, at 9 o'clock this morning and the many members of the organization present gave promise of a most successful gathering. Yesterday afternoon and evening was devoted to the arrival of the guests and members, and a reception by residents A. I. Cheney and others, the real business of the meeting beginning to-day.

At the opening of the convention Dr. C. S. Caverly of Rutland, president of the state board of health, gave an address of welcome, which was responded to by President Cheney. After the reading of the minutes of special meetings, the president's address was given. Then followed the reports of the various officers and committees and the reading of communications. Several papers were read, among them being the following: "Effervescence Salts," Frank L. Cheney, St. Johnsbury; "Bacterial Vaccines," Clifford G. Maynard, Brattleboro; "How to Conduct a Successful Retail Store," W. H. Hoyt, Burlington.

A discussion followed, after which the session adjourned for lunch.

This afternoon miscellaneous business received attention and officers will be elected. A baseball and other athletic games will take up the remainder of the afternoon. To-night there is a concert and dance under the direction of the Travelling Men's auxiliary. The meeting will close to-morrow, the time being devoted to finishing any business left over.

OVERRIDE THE MAYOR.

Burlington Aldermen Pass Wharf Resolution Over Him.

Burlington, July 6.—The board of aldermen held their regular monthly meeting last evening, adjourned from Monday evening, and transacted much routine business. There were also a few reports from committees that had nothing in particular to report, and certain members bucked against the mayor, as usual.

In the matter of the public wharf, the mayor returned with his veto the resolution passed by the board on May 31, rescinding the resolution authorizing the mayor to pay $27,500 for the wharf.

The board immediately passed the resolution, notwithstanding the mayor's veto, Aldermen Sullivan and McCaffrey being the only members to vote no.

Alderman Sullivan stated that he thought the mayor's position was right, but he was turned down by Aldermen Cowles and Barnes, who seem to be the anti-wharf leaders.

The anti-wharf deed was then presented and was referred to the wharf committee without being read. This developed the fact that some of the members of this committee were not sure whether or not they were members of this committee. Alderman Sullivan then made a motion that the mayor be made a member of this committee, but this motion was also lost. Aldermen Sullivan and McCaffrey being the only members to vote in favor of the resolution. Alderman Cowles objected to having the mayor on the board, whereupon Alderman Sullivan asked why he was afraid to have the chief executive of the city a member of such committee.

$300 FINE FOR FURNISHING.

Francis King of Wallingford, However,
Is Released on Probation.

Wallingford, July 6.—Francis King of this place was fined $300 Monday for furnishing liquor illegally. Sentence was suspended for causes and the respondent released on probation. He was arraigned before Justice of the Peace S. C. Saunders in a domestic case. State's Attorney J. C. Jones of Rutland and Grand Juror C. H. Congdon prosecuted.

Walter Kelly, a negro, also pleaded guilty to a charge of furnishing. He was sentenced to 30 days in the county jail. Edward Canton pleaded guilty to a charge of breach of the peace. He was fined $5 and costs. He will try to pay up.

THREE MEN HELD

For Robbing Swanton Man One Night
Last Week.

Swanton, July 6.—Frank, Arthur and Elmer Champang are in the St. Albans jail, awaiting the next session of county court on the charge of holding up and robbing Joseph Penell one night last week. The three Champangs disappeared immediately after the robbery, but were finally located and arrested by Deputy Sheriffs James and Cross at the bow of the river, where they had been hiding. At a hearing before Justice Gates, Penell identified his assailants and the evidence introduced was so strong that the court held them for the county court under $500 bonds each. Failing to procure bail, they were taken to jail.

ARRESTED ON LARCENY CHARGE.

Car of Beer, Consigned to Barre Parties,
Broken Into at Montpelier.

A car of beer, consigned to Barre parties, standing at the upper end of the Wells River yard in Montpelier, near the Taft and O'Neil coal sheds, was broken into some time Monday night and some of the beer stolen, on which charge Earl Warren, aged about 21, was arrested yesterday afternoon.

Warren made no resistance when arrested. He has had a clean record up to this time and has an excellent reputation. It is supposed that he learned what was in the car through seeing the way bills.

ROOSEVELT NOT RESPONSIBLE

For Statements Other Than Those He Himself Makes.

New York, July 6.—Colonel Roosevelt, at the office of The Outlook, issued the following to-day: "Mr. Roosevelt will see very many senators, congressmen, assemblymen and other public opinion makers. Mr. Roosevelt has said nothing and intends to say nothing as to any contest for a nomination."

LIFELONG RESIDENT.

J. Dennison Head Died in Town of Montgomery Yesterday.

St. Albans, July 6.—J. Dennison Head, aged 86 years, died yesterday afternoon at his home in Montgomery after a week's illness with pneumonia. He was born in Montgomery and had all ways lived there. He held various town offices and represented the town in the legislature of 1908. Mr. Head leaves his wife and an adopted daughter.

LAUNDRY BOILER BURSTS.

Man Killed at Laconia and Six Other Employees Hurt.

Laconia, N. H., July 6.—The boiler of Jenkins Bros' laundry on North street exploded last evening and, tearing its way through the center of the three-story wooden building, killed Earl E. Doran and caused injuries to six other employees of the laundry, mostly women. All the injured are expected to recover.

CARELESS BOY
IN LONG FALLRemo Lotti Dropped 27 Feet to Basement

IS IN DANGEROUS SHAPE

With Other Boys, He Was Playing in Attic of Unfinished House in North
End of City, and He Fell
Through Open Stairways.

An accident of a very serious nature occurred on Berkeley street last night about 7 o'clock, when Remo, the 6-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Domenico Lotti, residing on that street, fell from the attic of the Guidici brothers' tenement, in course of construction, and sustained severe injuries about the head. In company with a number of other young boys, he had gone to the unfinished building to play. Prior to the accident, he had ascended to the second story by means of the temporary stairs, and had then gained the attic by means of a ladder placed there by the workmen earlier in the day.

A portion of the floor space of this story is not yet boarded over, and it was while running across on the beams that the boy collided with a companion and was precipitated through the stair apertures to the basement. 27 feet below. Fortunately, the ladder struck on a pile of waste lumber. The basement is coated with cement, and had he landed on this his head would have been dashed to pieces. The boy's mother was notified at once, and a physician and Badger's ambulance were soon upon the scene. The boy was taken to the City hospital in an almost dying condition, where Dr. E. C. Ghidella performed a delicate operation for a compound fracture, it being necessary to remove three pieces of bone from the skull.

Although he was badly shaken up, the only injury was where he struck on the back of his head. This morning the boy, although in a dangerous condition, is resting comfortably and, unless meningitis or some other complication sets in, it is expected that he will recover.

Contractor William Kelly, who has the construction of the house in charge, said this morning that he had repeatedly warned the boys of that locality not to play around the house. He had even gone so far as to notify the parents that prosecutions might follow if the practice was not stopped. But they still persisted in gathering at the building each evening as soon as the workmen had departed for the night, and last evening's accident is the outcome of this carelessness.

POLICE HAVE NABBED
TWO YOUNG ROBBERSJohn Galray Sent to Industrial School at Vergennes and Ernest Raymo Was Bound Over to County Court.

By the arrest of Ernest Raymo yesterday forenoon, on suspicion of having made the break into the sporting goods store of Earl S. Shepard and his confession to the police implicating another boy by the name of John Galray, who resides near the Leonard farm on the west hill in Barre town, and the Galray boy's arrest and confession, the police are satisfied that they have now the secret to all of the breaks that have been made in the city during the last few months. The Galray boy, who will be 16 years of age next month and is small for his age, was arrested at his home yesterday afternoon by Chief Sinclair and officers Gamble and Carr, who went to the farm in an automobile.

This morning the two boys were arraigned in city court on the charge of larceny. Neither of the boys' parents appeared in court to look after the boys, and they had no counsel until M. M. Gordon, who was in the court room voluntarily assisted them in the proceedings. The Galray boy was charged with petty larceny, and he pleaded guilty to the charge. Judge Scott then sentenced him to the industrial school at Vergennes for the remainder of his minority, which will be until August 11, 1915. The Raymo boy, who is 17 years of age, was arraigned on the charge of grand larceny of goods to the value of $20. He waived examination and was bound over to county court. State's Attorney Gates was present and stated to the court that he would file information against the boy in county court this afternoon, so that the case could be taken up at once, as county court, he said, would probably adjourn to-night.

When the officers arrived at the Galray boy's home yesterday, the boy was not at the house, but his parents said he was out in the field and would soon return. When he appeared, he was questioned by the officers for some time before he finally confessed that he had some guns, which he had stolen. He took officer Gamble into the field, and hidden under a fence, they found a rifle and a quantity of ammunition. At the house, he brought forth a revolver.

From here the officers went to the Leonard farm again, where the Raymo boy had been living, and searching the premises, found a rifle, and they also learned from the Raymo boy that he had given away several revolvers to boys living on farms in the vicinity. In all, the officers picked up four revolvers, two rifles and two hunting knives, all of which Mr. Shepard has identified as his, and that they were stolen from his store at the time the last break was made there. Nothing was found of the articles that were missing from the store when the first break was made.

The Galray boy said that he and Raymo, on the night they entered the store, had a most easy time of it, and that he had taken the guns and ammunition from the store and had them in the back of the building, where he broke about one o'clock in the morning. They then got a ladder and placed it up to the rear window of the store. Galray said he went up first, but he was not strong enough to pull off the screen from the window, and he came down and Raymo pulled it off and went into the store and handed the guns and ammunition out to him. Galray says that this was the only break that he was implicated in, but he said that the Raymo boy had told him of having made the break into the Martin book store and Holmes' jewelry store, which are both in the same place, and also that he broke into the fruit stores of Karkades & Maniaty and B. Dente.

This morning Raymo told the police that there was a bicycle at the Leonard farm, which he had stolen from the rear of the Currier block a week ago last Saturday night, which belonged to C. N. Conyon & Co. and had been missed by them at that time.

The whole council voted it was unjustly and not right to have it there, but they could see no way to prohibit it, because it was on private property, except it could be made out a nuisance. Alderman Hoyt also said that the school complaints had been made to him in the nature of protests against the signboards, which had been placed right in front of one of the city's school buildings. Aldermen Willey and Hoyt also said that people had been told that the signboards had been made to him in some way that the city could have them removed. Alderman Willey said that he had been informed that there was to have been a strong petition, signed by all the residents in that vicinity, declaring it a nuisance, presented at the meeting of the council, but for some reason it was not done.

Alderman Hoyt also said that the school complaints had been made to him in the nature of protests against the signboards, which had been placed right in front of one of the city's school buildings. Aldermen Willey and Hoyt also said that people had been told that the signboards had been made to him in some way that the city could have them removed. Alderman Willey said that he had been informed that there was to have been a strong petition, signed by all the residents in that vicinity, declaring it a nuisance, presented at the meeting of the council, but for some reason it was not done.

The whole council voted it was unjustly and not right to have it there, but they could see no way to prohibit it, because it was on private property, except it could be made out a nuisance.
